Democratic Delegates at Santa Barbara Startled.

Matthews also Says He Will Not Be a Candidate.

entiment in Favor of Indorsing Can Growing-Tammany Fighting for a Nomination-Situation Night Before Convention.

By Telegraph to The Times.

SANTA BARBARA, Aug. 28.-[Special.] It looks tonight as though the indorsement of Cannon by the Democratic Congressional convention tomorrow is a foregone conclusion. Immediately after the departure of the 4:55 train from Los Angeles this evening, George S. Patton exhibited the following dispatch from Hon. J. de Barth Shorb:

CORONADO, Aug. 23. George S. Patton, Los Angeles: You are authorized to state definitely that I will no make the Congressional race. Dr. Worth-ington's protest as endangering my health as brought me to this decision. It is a disappontment to me, as I think I would have been elected, and could in that position have done much for my district. It tion have done much for my district. It will be interesting to know if the Southern Pacific Company can elect a man pledged to prevent building a breakwater, for this is their scheme. Whoever will receive the nomination, you can pledge me to take the stump in his behalf.

J. DE BARTH SHORB. CAUSED A SENSATION.

The reading of the dispatch caused a genuine sensation. There were on board Hon. R. F. del Valle, Maj. W. R. Burke, George S. Patton, John Gaffey, Martin C. Marsh, "Cha "Chalk" Roberts, Police Commissioner Snyder. Waters, and others of less Billy" prominence, and the telegram was soon the general topic of discussion. It was generally agreed that nothing else was eft to do but to indorse Senator del Valle stated unequivocally that under no circumstances would he accept the nomination, as did also George S. Patton, and a majority ex pressed themselves unequivocally for 'fusion." Some few of the delegates who have heretofore been most pronounced for a Democratic nomine were completely non-plussed by the Shorb telegram, and did not know what to say. They agreed, however, that unless there should be some developments on the arrival at Santa Barbara the indorsement of Cannon was as sured.

CAUCUSING BEGUN. On the arrival of the Los Angele train the delegation at once proceeded to the Arlington Hotel, where those who came up in the morning were domiciled, and some lively caucusing en There are comparatively few delegates from outside counties about as yet. and the Los Angeles people have it all their own way. The Tammany of Los Angeles is here in force and is fighting for a nomination. Charley Kearney, Tommy Savage, Martin C. Marsh and other shining lights of that organization are working hard for Angeles Herald, is also fighting for the nomination of Hon. Stephen M. White, Maj. W. R. Burke and other conservative members of the party favor the indorsement of Cannon or allowing the nomination to go by default.

MATHEWS DECLINES. THE TIMES reporter has just seen Mathews, and that gentleman states unequivocally that he will not accept the nomination. Shorb's positive withdrawal created quite a sensation George S. Patton, who positively stated earlier in the day that he would not accept the nomination, shows signs of weakening tonight and states that, while he favors the indorsement of Cannon, he does not care to be put in the position of positively refusing the nomination under any and all circumstances. This, tonight, is the only hope of the Tammanyites, and they are bringing all the pressure to bear that they can on him to keep him in the field.

Green of Monterey is here as a delegate and has a letter from Cannon saying he will accept the nomination if it is given him, if the convention will accept him on his record as a Democrat without requiring him to indorse the platform of the party, which he cannot do, as he has already indorsed the People's party. The advocates of the fusion movement are making the best possible use of this letter.

THE BAILROAD'S HAND SEEN. THE TIMES correspondent tonight in erviewed one of the most influential of the conservative members of party on the situation. The gentleman said that nothing definite could be stated at this time. He said the Southern Pacific is in this fight and is doing everything possible to have the Demo-crats put up a candidate in order that he may be slaughtered. This, he says, is shown in every action, and from the character of the men who are working for the nomination, some of whom are loaded up with proxies, all of which will be voted for a nominee if one can be found. The gentleman was very outspoken in his opinions, and made no secret of the fact that he believed all the strings are being worked to that end.

Town ament at Staten Island, win from them by default and will contest for the championship with Campbell and Huntington, who last year won the title from Hobart and Hall.

SITUATION SUMMED UP. In brief the situation may be summed up as follows: The Tammany wing of the Los Angeles delegation wants a layers are on a strike, and work on 500 candidate. They are not particular who it is, but since Shorb's withdrawal they prefer Mathews if he can be induced to take it, which from the indications and bricklayers as to whether work shall begin at 6:30 or 5 o'clock a.m.

ions tonight is not probable. Then, it not Mathews, Patton. If he refuses, anybody who will take it. The conervative wing favors the indorsement of Cannon or no nomination, and will make a fight on that basis. It is probable that the real fight will take place on the floor of the convention tomorrow, and an interesting time is anticipated. The question of organization has not been considered, but it is probable that a Los Angeles man will be made chairman. W. G. Taylor. man.

The line of march was over the business portion of the city, over the principal down-town streets. The weather was delightful during the parade and the bright uniforms, gleaning believes flashing forms, gleaming helmets, flashing swords and battle-axes, dancing plumes and feathers, and flying flags, pre-sented an imposing and at the same time a brilliant spectacle. fore Outrages by the Idle Men-Non-Union Workers Beaten-Attempts to Wreck Trains-False News Sent Out.

Bufflo (N. Y..) Aug. 28.—[By the Associated Press.] Today a trainload of Western freight was shunted into the Lackawanna yards from the Lake Shore freight yards. Soon after the men, about 125 in number, quit. Superintendent Seabert, of the road, was asked if the strike would impede passenger or freight traffc. "No," he said, "it finds us fully prepared." We have men to take the places of those who quit. Trains will move as usual.' It is learned that the freight to which the men objected was believed by them to be from the Lehigh. This was a mistake as the officials claimed it was ordinary lake freight. Trains were running as usual an hour after the strike. Two usual an nour after the strike. Two hours later, for a similar reason, it is said, the switchmen in the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh yard went out, adding fifteen more to the idle switchmen. The telephone wire between Superintendent Seabert's office and the yardmaster's office was cut this afternoon, thus preventing communication from the head office of the Dela vare, Lackawanna and Western.

TRYING TO ARBITRATE. Today Messrs. Donovan, Purcell and Robertson, of the State Board of Arbitration, attempted to learn from Grand Master Sweeney when or if ever he is going to order out the switchmen working in the jurusdiction affected by the strike. Sweeney practically refused to give the arbitrators any information. The board will begin an investigation into the cause of the strike tomorrow. The summoning of witnesses has already egun. Grand Master Sargent, of the firemen's organization, said this morning that he had no plans for today. He is awaiting the arrival of the executive officers of other railway unions, whom Grand Master Sweeney has invited here in conference.

FALSE REPORTS SENT OUT. The reports sent out from here early this morning to the effect that a con-flict took place between the strikers and troops in which several were killed and others wounded were without foundation. There was no disturbance of a serious nature last night, except firing by skulkers, which was replied to by soldiers, but no one is known to have been shot. Reputable newspaper men in the city are instituting an inquiry as to who constructed the news which cuased such cruel anxiety among the friends of those here.

Joseph Heimerle, recording secretary and treasurer of Buffalo Lodge, No. 3, and others wounded were without foun and treasurer of Buffalo Lodge, No. 3, Switchmen's Mutual Aid Association, and one of the leaders of the strike, was arrested today for interfering with Lehigh Valley passenger trains. Upon being searched a 38-calibers revolver was found in his pocket. Heimerle fur-nished bail and was released. Shortly after the tie-up on the Lacka-wanna this afternoon the switchmen waited on Superintendent Seabert and offered their services to protect the company's property. Seabert replied that he did not think the company would require guards, military or otherwise, and thanked the men for the offer.

SKIRMISHES WITH STRIKERS. Three attacks were made by strikers on pickets and non-union switchmen this afternoon. An attack made on the picket lines of the Twenty-second Regi-ment, stationed at the Tofft farm, by forty strikers will probably result fa-tally to one of their number. The crowd began throwing stones at John M. Guicken and Charles Cable, nonunion men who were working in the Tofft farmyard. Lieut. Chase Austin and Sergt. William Conrow, of Co. C., ordered the stone-throwers to disperse. They refused to do so and were fired upon by order of Lieut. Austin. The second set opened well for Knapp, but Chase seemed suddenly to wake up, his play showing wonderful improvement, and after a hard struggle he finally won the game, 6-4. In the third A man named Manahar was struck by emergency hospital. His condition is extremely critical. The coroner was notified to be in readiness to take the man's ante-mortem statement should signs of failure occur. O'Laughlin, Dunn, Madigan and Cotter, other members of the crowd, were arrested, charged with rioting. A private who did the shooting was also detained by the police. The officer of the company to which the detained private belonged protested against the arrest of his subordinate and demanded his release. At the same time he informed Gen. Doyle the same time he informed Gen. Dovle of the arrest, and Gen. Doyle ordered the company, and battalion if needed, to set the soldier at liberty.

> Allen L. Richardson, a non-union switchman, was thrown from the top of boxcar in the Erie yards by a striker about 6 o'clock this evening and badly bruised. Thomas Cable, a non-union man, while working in the Lebigh yards at East Buffalo was set upon by four strikers and was badly injured. Two of the strikers jumped on his stomach while their companions held the victim down. The injured men are at the down. The injured men are at the READING (Pa.,) Aug. 23.—A dastardly attempt was made to wreck the express on the Pennsylvania Railroad due in this city from Philadelphia at 8 o'clock last night. The train dashed into four heavy timbers placed across the track. Fortunately only the rear wheels of the locomotive jumped the track. The lives of 100 passengers were imperiled.

Engineers not Going Out. CLEVELAND, Aug. 23.—Chief Arthur of the locomotive engineers, has returned from Canada. He said it would be impossible to have a conference with the labor leaders at Buffalo as he is too busy. It was his personal opinion that the brotherhood would not interfere in the strike as it had definite contracts with all railroad companies to run their locomotives on certain conditions, which were not yet violated.

Going to Confer with Sw Chicago, Aug. 23.—E. E. Clark of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, grand master of the Order of Railway Conductors, arrived in the city this morning. "I am on my way to Buffalo," said he, "in response to the invitation of Grand Master veeney, of the Switchmen's Union. He said, so far as he knew, his order had no grievance to right. He thought the demands of the switchmen were, just, but strongly condemned the recent lawlessness. Clark was joined here by Grand Master Wilkinson, of the Order of Railway Trainmen, of Galesburg, and both left for Buffalo at 3 o'clock.

The switchmen, of whom there are fifteen in this city, are all idle today. The men refuse to talk, and the only explanation for the cessation of work here is that the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western switchmen in Buffalo have been ordered out.

Los Angeles, Aug. 23, 1892.

To the Executive Committee of the Republican County Central Committee of Los Angles County, Cal.—Gentlemen. This Congressional Committee would respectfully request the Executive Committee of the Republican County Central Committee to eliminate from the primary test the name of our Republican nominee for Congress, Mr. Hervey Lindley.

In justice to Mr. Lindley it is proper to state that the motion to add his name to the primary test vote was made without his knowledge or consent; furthermore Mr. Lindley desires it to be thoroughly understood that he does not wish his name to be used as a stumbling block in the way of any voter.

By order of the committee.

The application of W. J. Snyder for a saloon license at No. 455 South Spring street was referred to the chief. A complaint was read charging Officer Rickenbach with maliciously arresting

The charges are to the effect that the officer had made insultenect that the officer had made insulting remarks to him and on demand to see the officer's star, the latter violently seized him and ordered him to the golice station, whence he was sent before Justice Austin for trial under pretense of obstructing the sidewalk.

Walkem further says there was nothing in the charge, and he was discharged. Having no recourse for malicious arrest, he resorts to this petition and asks the board to see that citations are said to see that citations a manner under cover of police uniform.

Casting Up the Account.

The Washington Post has been going into figures somewhat on the subject of the recent strike in the building trades of New York, and it makes showing which ought to startle the average trade unionists and unsettle the ground under the feet of the walking delegate.

The strike originated about two months and a half ago, and its first cause was an attempt of a union to fine one of its members $50 for an alleged infraction of rules. The man was employed in the Jackson Architectural Iron orks of New York. He denounced the fine as oppressive and the union be gan its characteristic work of persecution by demanding his discharge. Iron Works Company very properly refused to discharge him. He was giving satisfaction to his employers, and they did not propose to ruin him at the instance of the union. At once the trouble was on. The walking delegate cropped out everywhere. The despot-ism of "organized labor" was invoked.

One by one the trades were called out and sent on the strike, until 20. 000 men were idle, hundreds of improvements were suspended, and only the walking delegate prospered. All this because some union sought to punish one of its members, and, failing in that, undertook to paralyze the entire building trade of the city by way of asserting its powers.

The duration of the full-grown strike was about forty days. For the purpose of calculation it is assumed that 19,-600 men were out of employment, and that their average wages would have been $3 per diem. This would amount to a direct loss of $58,-800 per day to the artisans in the wages they did not earn, or $352,-800 a week. Thus if only one-half of the 19,600 men lost full four weeks of heir pay, their total sacrifice to the iron-rule of unionism was $1 411 200-nearly a million and a half of dollars. This would seem a large and foolish expenditure in the effort to collect $50. ut it must be remembered that, as a matter of fact, the board of walking lelegates had much more than that at stake. They had at stake, indeed, their authority and the perpetuation of an organization upon which they live in comparative luxury and idleness. They are the only beneficiaries of the strike in general, and never before, perhaps, had they so much involved as in this particular strike. Thus, the working cheerful organization in the present lost, in four weeks alone, $1,411,200. the builders, contractors and pro campaign. Both the Democratic and People's parties are staking their prietors a vast sum, which we have means of estimating, while, through it all, the walking delegate not only drew his regular salary of $3 or $4 a day, but also his $1 per diem for extra ser the poverty and generally ground-down vice and committee work in times of condition of the masses. In all parts of

> As there are sixty-six walking dele gates in all it follows that at $5 per day each, these valuable gentry have drawn since the beginning of the strike some $20,000, to which we may add for expenses incidental to "directing" the strike, about $5000 more. And this $25,000 has been taken, of course, from the men who belong and contribute to the unions the same men who have just lost $1,500,000 while the walking delegates were spending $25, 000 more upon themselves.

The Washington paper concludes the subject as follows:

The Post ventured the predication, in iscussing this matter a few days since. that the walking delegate would sooner or later have to 'go." We see nothing in the situation to suggest a modifica-tion of that forecast. Unless the Amer-ican laborer is a dull and senseless clod, time tire of and rebel against the use that is made of him by the walking delegate. He must at last see that he has nothing to gain from these strikes, most of the cost of which he pays, and ill of the benefits of which the walking lelegate reaps.

Our esteemed but misguided contem poraries, the early Herald and the late Express, are at outs again-this time about the number of people who have been lynched in Southern California The late Express found nobody prior to Torres who had been made to dance on air by an outraged populace, while the early Herald was able to unearth but one other such circumstance from a deeply encrusted memory. Apparently neither of them ever heard of the fifteen or twenty Chinamen who were made to decorate certain portions of the landscape of Los Angeles some years back. Such being the case, it would seem ap ropos to suggest that they had better ecome members of the local Historical Society and get posted up a bit in order not to make these bad breaks right in calamity howlers at their word and public. at the Grand last night, and it is certainly no misnomer to call both the play and the players "attractions."

Augustus Thomas his not written a great play in the delightful creation that bears the name of a star in the constellation of States, but he has produced one that is full of delicious character parts, full of sentiment and full of pathos—a play that to these qualities adds the further one of presenting some of the most delightful stage pictures imaginatile, and one that holds the listener's interest with a tenseness that is at times almost painful. There is to be sure too much of unnaturalness in the situations sometimes, as for instance the strained position of Mrs. Page at the old gateway in the third act and in the crueity practiced on the tottering old Col. Preston in falsely telling him of his grandaughier's elopement, with "Armstrong;" but withal the pice his so many of the elements of human interest that one may overlook these small features that tend to mar the symmetry of a drama which contains so much that is charming and delightful.

The story is scarcely a new one but it is nd delightful. The story is scarcely a new one, but it is old with grace and felicity of dialogue and a characterization that is pleasing to a de-told with grace and felicity of dialogue and a characterization that is pleasing to a degree.

The company is generally excellent—much of its material is superb. The part of "Col. Preston," as played by J. H. Stoddard, is an almost faultiess bit of acting, quite equal to and by the way somewhat reminiscent of C. W. Couldock in his character of "Dunstan Kirke." The finish of Mr. Stoddard's art is, one of the greatest delights of the play, and when he takes the center of the stage it belongs to him by right of merit.

E. M. Holland as "Col. Moberly" is the "relic of the Confederacy" down to the last slurred "r" in his perfect pronunciation of the "President's English" as "she is spoke" in certain portions of the sunny South. His make up and his mannerisms are true to the life and his quaint chivalry is redolent of the land where the magnolia blossoms, if we may dare the metaphor.

Charles L. Harris is peerless in character parts and makes of "Squire Tucker" one of his greatest successes. His facial acting is a study in the art, and his every movement and attitude is perfection itself. Frank Carlyle is a manly and emicient "Capt. Davenport," but his sob as he sat down on the old cannon at the doorway came near spoiling the scene, as the irrepressible god in the gallery caught on to it and was inclined to make merry thereat. The "Mr. Armstrong" of Walden Ramsey was entirely too stagy and melodramatic for such a play as Alabama, and could be toned down with benefit, but his stage appearance is decidedly pleasing and his voice is excellent. With these unpleasant mannerisms overcome he would make a strong player in the part.

come he would make a strong player in the part.

Edward S. Ables made a good "Lathrop Page," and the conventional stage villain was finely rendered by J. G. Saville. Odel Williams as "becatur," a colored servitor of the old régline, was excellent, and the "Mrs. Page" of Jennie A. Eustace was gracefully and daintily played. She is full of womanliness and has the "low voice" that is ever a charm in the sex. Lelia Wolston assumed the role of "Carey Presenton," and did it with consummate grace, while the smaller parts of "Mrs. Stockton," by Emily Seward, and "Atlanta Moberly," by Zenaide Vislaire, were intelligently presented. The singing of plantation melodies by an unseen quartette of negro singers, was a feature of the entertainment.

Tonight Alabama will. be repeated, and those who delight in refined playing, full of dainty touches and a spirit of pastoralness that is as sweet as the olor from banks of bloom, should not fail to see it.

Squirrel Poison (tested for years.)—To six gallons whole wheat take one and a half ounces of cynide of potash, one ounce pulverized strychnine, nifne eggs, five good pints sugar. Powder the cynide of potash and dissolve in very little water. Beat the eggs, add strychnine, sugar and cynide of potash, pour gradually over the dry wheat, stirring until the whole mass is wet with the poisoned egg. The mass will dry in a day or two without being spread or spoiling. Add oll of rhodium to scent strongly as you take wheat out for use. Apply teaspoonful to big holes. Go over ground after one week to see if any holes contain live squirrels. Two application will rid a whole hillside colony of them. Never water soak wheat for poison.

In Close Quarters.

C. W. Bailey had quite an adventur while hunting near Stonewall last week He encountered a family of four Call He encountered a family of four California lions sporting in the waters of a spring. Mr. Bailey is fond of sport, but this was a little more than he bargained for, notwithstanding the fact that he was hunting lions—people never hunt anything else during the close season. As the odds were against him he decided to open the battle at once and brought down the lioness at the first shot. The old male with one of the half-grown cubs took to the bushes. The remaining cub showed fight and made the affair extremely lively for Mr. Bailey, who had the misfortune to get a cartridge "caught" in his repeating rifle. After dodging around until he got the gun in working order he succeeded in killing the cub. Mr. Bailey says the action of the gun brought on an attack of "buckager" and he concluded that he had enough lions for one day. He is having his trophies mounted for the World's Fair.

Adial E. Stevenson says he favored "the preservation, at any cost, of the Federal Union." The fact that he never voted for a man durling the war that was in favor of its prosecution and the additional fact that he ran as an elector on the peace-at-any price ticket in 1854 looks much as if he was willing to pay as the price for the preservation of the Union the destruction of the Union.—[Decatur Bepublican.

The description sent out by Mono's Sheriff calls for a very dark Mexican. His age is given as 26 years; weight, 180 pounds; height, 5 feet 7 inches; alleged to be a drinking man. The description further adds that the murderer has a scar on his left cheek, and that he has a mother in San Bernardino, and that he talked English. "A great play, Chase!" burst in guick succession as the champion of the southern association made his points, and the Riverside crack picked up the balls and returned them with a speed unsurpassed by the service. The prisoner gives his name as Sotillo, and states that many years ago his mother, now deceased, resided in San Bernardino, and further, that some time ago he was in Mono county.

Although Sotillo claims that he has resided in this county a great many years he could not name the name of a single person he knew in this city.
Chief Glass states that Sotillo, pre-vious to March last year, has been placed in the prison three times for ipulators.

During the first few sets Carter played in a cautious and leisurely style, but the Riverside player's capabilities soon became strikingly apparent, and the champion, discovering the fact that he must play up to win, set to work in earnest.

"Chase leads," and "Carter is ahead" were cried alternately as the score was called. Both men in the main played to the center of the court. Time and again Chase rushed to the net. Time and again Chase rushed to the net, volleying the balls in such a manner as to keep Carter hustling to pick them up. The untiring and even plays of the latter were, however, too much for his younger adversary in the long run, and the Riversider's playing became somewhat wild toward the close. His errors finally closed the game with the score standing 6-4, 6-4 in Carter's favor. Bumiller disposed of Cosby rather easily, much to the surprise of the latter's friends, the score being 6-4, 6-1. As the plays narrowed down interest

Lester's splendid drives were very effective at at first, but Bumiller finally gauged his service and placed the swiftest balls without difficulty and soon carried the day by following up his advantage. BASEBALL MATTERS.

Count Vanderbeck is allowing no grass to grow under his feet during the second season, but is determined to land the pennant in Los Angeles in November in spite of all protests.

He has had a line out for new men to strengthen weak spots in the team for some time, and when the Pacific North-west League disbanded a couple of days ago, he promptly threw out several lines to the best players in that organization. The result is that he yesterday signed the two brightest stars in the defunct Portland club, which won the first season's pennant. The two men signed by the hustling Los Angeles mag-nate are Pitcher McNabb and Catcher Baldwin, the best battery in the Northwest League.

Pete McNabb is a six-footer with wonderful speed and curves. Glenalvin signed him last season for Portland, when strengthening his team for a final struggle for the pennant, and it may be said that the big fellow won the flag, for he arrived in time to pitch seven games and they were all victories, the pennant going to Portland by a single game. He also took part in the Pacific Coast championship games last winter, and was regarded in San Francisco as the best man who pitched in that con-test. He is a good batter as well. He has only been pitching two years, hav-ing been formerly a catcher. Baldwin is an active little fellow, and one of the hardest workers that ever donned a mask. His record does not loom up very well in figures, but this is because he takes all sorts of desperate fielding chances, and never shirks an opportunity to retire an opponent. Tickets and advance money were for Tickets and advance money were for-warded to both the men yesterday, and they will be with the team in a few

Count Vanderbeck goes to San Francisco this afternoon but will probably return Saturday. He is elated at get-ting hold of another battery, which is a sure winner, and says that with Roach, Balsz and McNabb, all three at work, neither of them will have too much to do and the hits will be spread out do and the hits will be spread our among their opponents at the rate of five or six to a game.

MILITARY BALL. The society event of the season at Long Beach was the grand ball given Monday evening by the citizens in honor of the Ninth Regiment. About 150 couples were present, and a more gor-geous display of brass buttons and uniforms of blue never was made in Long Beach. Promptly at 8:45 p.m. the first notes of "Marching Through Georgia" were sounded by the string band, immediately after which Col. Spileman and wife, assisted by Sergt. Sloat, of Co. E, led off in the grand march. The large hall was packed with spectators—citizens and soldiers—to view the meny dancers. Fully seventy-five couples to-cupied the floor in each set, making the sight one of bewildering gayety. The merriment continued until a very late. hour, elegant refreshments having been served at midnight. Three committees had charge of the ball, one from the Ninth Regiment and the citizens and the other two chosen wholly from the residents of the town. The Committee on Arrangements was C. Marie Naud Terrasse, residing in Los Angeles, Cal.

Theresa Naud Feran, residing in New York, N. Y.

That her reasons for applying for and desiring to obtain an order of this court for a change of name are these, viz.

That the name "Naud" is the name of her family and was her maiden name.

That the name of her first husband was also Naud—pow deceased.

That she has had great family trouble and much scandalous litigation with her second husband and his family, named Weyse, the odium of which still adheres to said name and causes her great mental pain, suffering and discontent.

That she is now divorced from said second husband, Otto G. Weyse, Esq., and is very anxious to be disencumbered of the name of "Weyse," in order to secure her peace of mind.

"Weyse," in order to secure her peace of mind.

That she has had much difficulty in securing her mails and conducting her correspondence under the name "Weyse" owing to the frequent and unaccountable loss of mail matter addressed to her in that name—so much so that she has been obliged to cause her correspondence to be carried on under an assumed name in order to obtain all mails addressed to her and that said recourse was and still is necessary therefor.

That she is the owner and manager of "Naud's warehouse," a general warehouse business in Los Angeles city in said county, the business reputation of which suffered much by having been conducted for a time under the name "Weyse," and she is very anxious to restore the name and status of said warehouse to its original prestige under the name of Naud—the name of its founder.

Wherefore your petitioner prays that after notice given of this her application, after notice given of this her application, the said cause be heard at a time to be appointed by the court and that an order be thereunto made authorizing your petitioner to resume her maiden name of Louise Naud.

LOUISE WEYSE.

There being no opposition to the petition the Court made an order granting the prayer, and in a very short space of time the lady petitioner's name was changed from Weyse to Naud.

Mrs. Naud, for many years, has been in considerable litigation with the Weyses. During the pendency of one of the suits the children of Mrs. Naud, and her sister. Julie Weyses were of the suits the children of Mrs. Naud, and her sister, Julie Weyse, were spirited out of the city by O. G. and R. C. Weyse, and not until the complaint, charging kidnapping against R. G. Weyse, was dismissed, as a matter of compromise, were the children delivered to their mothers.

During the long and expensive litigation there were many side-plays. Thomas Keys, one of Mrs. Naud's witnesses, was spirited out of the county.

and through Lawson's agency he was located on a bee ranch some distance from Oceanside, in San Diego county. He was brought back to Los Angeles, and, while on the stand in one of the Weyse suits, he described how he was bribed by O. G. Weyse and a party named Jones. The latter was arrested for the offense.

In granting Mrs. Naud's prayer the Court inspected a couple of envelopes. One bore the postmark of July 18. It was addressed to Mrs. Louise Weyse. It was plainly seen that the envelope had been opened on the back and sealed again. The letter reached Mrs. Naud thirty-two days after it had been stamped at the postoffice in this city. As the envelope was marked with private marks it was easily tracked from the postoffice, with the aid of Lawson's agency, and it is known in whose possession it was for thirty days, and the United States grand jury will be called upon to investigate the matter.

ERE is a suggestion for you! We have taken forty shades in the finest quality all-wool Henriettas and about a dozen different styles in all-wool Dress Goods and have snipped the prices—85c goods for 55c; dollar goods for 55c. There is nothing the matter with them; you get the goods and we get the advertising. The Dress Goods Department has got out of its swaddling clothes and is now walking right along. The trade is showing a very great increase, and there is no reason why it shouldn't. All-wool Crystals; they are new; dollar a yard buys them. It is the nimble sixpence that is bringing the big growth to this department. All-wool Storm Serges, a new idea; black, blue and several other shades. Diagonal Crystalines-best sellers yet shown and at a popular price. Old-fashioned Empress Cloths under a new name and with new colors to select from. Whip Cordsplenty of navy blues, blacks, tans and greens; all splendid colors this season; we have grays, modes, and the new mixed browns that no one can keep store without. Besides we show today our new Dress Trimmings; don't expect to find high-priced goods in them, you will be disappointed if you do-10c, 15c, 20c, 25c, 35c, 50c-good enough and nice enough for a millionaire and cheap enough to suit any purse. We are trying to get the popular trade, they spend the money and buy the goods; a laboring man spends more money than the Shylock that loans money at 20 per cent. per annum. We try to make the prices reasonable, that is why the trade is growing so rapidly. Treatment—none can serve you better. If you want a sample you get it without the second asking; goods are shown with the greatest freedom and the trade appreciates all these little attentions. Some clerks would thrash the daylight out of a fellow who would treat his wife as badly as he treats some of his trade. You get good treatment every time in this house, and there is no reason for anything else. The Dress Goods Department is complete.

DR. WONG.

713 South Main Street, - - Los Angeles, California.

The above are two fac similes of many REWARDS OF MERIT or DIPLOMAS of PROFES-SIONAL SKILL which have from time to time been awarded to the CELEBRATED CHINESS PHYSICIAN, DR. WONG, for his superior medical abilities and curative powers.

It has long been customary among the Chinese people when one becomes sick and when repeated attempts to cure him have failed, and he is perhaps given up to die, if, after having been taken to an eminent physician, he be cured of his disease—the cured, too in addition to the regular fee for professional services rendered, makes the physician a present as a token of gratitude for his restoration to health and the prolongation of his life. This present consists usually of a broad plank, presenting much the appearance of a sign-board, filled with characters entirely meaningless to the average English scholar, but full of meaning to the successful physician and his friends, it is a motto which highly compliments the physician for his great skill in effecting a cure of the disease which once afflicted the donor.

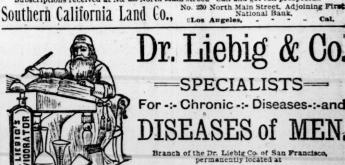

It is not an uncommon thing to see a great number of these COMPLIMENTARY DIPLOMAS adorning the office walls of Chinese physicians in their native country, and indeed a number of the most successful ones in this country are the happy possessors of a few of these high tokens of very superior medical ability.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. MARTIN.

The sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Clarence S. Martin, née Miss Mary Conning Bradley, of this place, has cast a cloud over Pasadena which is perceptible in all circles. Mrs. Martin's death, which resulted from heart failure, is an unexpected blow which even yet can scarcely be realized, and occurred yesterday afternoon at Camp Wilson, where Mr. and Mrs. Martin have been located during the summer. Mrs. Martin leaves a son a week old, and the circumstances of her untimely decease are particularly distressing.

Then another woman stepped in and usurped the affections of Thomas, which caused Mary to get mad all over, whereupon she manifested her open hostility to Thomas in the manner above indicated. Thomas then absented himself from town for a couple of months, but he since returned to his first love, which accounts for the unwillingness of the complaining witness to appear against him when the case came up for trial. Before dismissing the case, Recorder Rose gently, but in a manner that could not be misunderstood, reminded Mary that the painful duty would devolve upon her of paying the costs so far incurred, amounting to $13, which she did without much delay, and Thomas then went free.

CRIME AND CRIMINALS. The Frank Tennis Rape Case Fell to the

Mention of the arrest of Frank Tenn's, on the East Side, at an early hour yesterday morning, by Officer McKeog, was made in THE TIMES When Tennis was taken before Police Justice Austin yesterday morning, the girl who brought the charges refused to swear to a complaint, and denied that she complained to the officers Monday night. She is Tennis's step-daughter, and seems to be a little weak "under the hat," for she made a statement to the effect that Tennis assaulted her early Monday evening, but she denied every thing yesterday.

Nothing would induce her to swear to the complaint, and Tennis was released.

CHARLES J. PALMER. Yesterday, in Justice Austin's depart ment of the Police Court. Charles J. Palmer, who was arrested day before

Mrs. White testified that she was away from home Monday afternoon, and when she returned, at 3 o'clock, she noticed Palmer hanging around

When she neared her house Palmer came toward her and insulted her. She ran in the house and he appeared at a window. She then called for help and he ran away. She gave chase and several neighbors joined in. They overtook him at Seventh street and he was arrested by Officer Morton.

The Transcontinental Meeting in New York Today.

The Present Status of the Eastbound Rate War.

How the Passenger Agents Make Their Own Rates-Salt Water Day at Redondo-Local

There was no change yesterday in the eastbound passenger rate matter. All the Los Angeles representatives of the Southern Pacific's connecting lines have been authorized to meet the Santa Fe's cut in their own offices. In explanation of this it may be stated that the Southern Pacific office here has received no authority to make the low rate over any lines but the Santa Fé and Alton east of the Missouri River. The pas-senger agents of the Rock Island and Burlington may make the $45 rate to passengers, though the agents must pay $50 to the Southern Pacific for the tickets. As the proportion which the roads east of the river get out of the Chicago rate is but $10, and this is reduced by one-half, only a small margin is left to keep the fight out of transcon-tinental territory. The Burlington route has one advantage in being able to haul passengers on its own line from to haul passengers on its own line from Denver to Chicago, instead of from Kansas City, which gives the company a proportional rate of $17.20 from which to make the $5 cut. All the passenger agents, excepting only those of the Santa Fé and Chicago and Alton, must use prepaid ticket orders from Missouri River points, as their lines have not publicly met the cut rate. The general passenger agents of all the lines involved will be in New York today to attend the meeting of the Transcontitend the meeting of the Transconti-nental Association, and something may there develop having important bearing on the rate war.

If the rate should be cut another $5 it would require the roads to carry passengers from the river to Chicago for nothing. If the rate should be cut further the lines west of the river must become involved and then—but prob-ably not before—will the Southern Pacific accept less than its arbitrary rate, cinc accept less than its arbitrary rate, in which case the transcontinental war will become merry. While the public enjoys the spectacle and hopes to profit by the struggle the stockholders of the reads look with dread upon the prospects of another ruinous rate wrangle. But until further notice tickets to Chicago will be $65, for five 1 and $45.5 for ago sell at $65 for first and $45 for

ANENT THE PACIFIC MAIL SUBSIDY. The president of a transcontinental road is quoted as saying to a New York reporter: "The Transcontinental Association does not pay a subsidy of $850,000 a year to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company in the sense of paying over so much money. A subsidy is provided for by an agreement on the part of the steamship company to mainpart of the steamship company to maintain rates; and if the tonnage secured under those rates does not produce in gross earnings the sum of $850,000 a year, the transcontinental lines make up the deficit, which as a rule does not exceed $100,000 or $150,000 are exceed $100,000 or $150,000 annually. The contest of the Transconti nental Association is as to the basis on which the deficit shall be divided among the central lines in the association— whether on the basis of all overland the business to San Francisco. The northern lines claim that Portland and Puget Sound points are not protected by the subsidy arrangements, and the Atchison and Santa Fé road claims that Attension and Santa Fe road claims that the business of San Diego is not protected, and that therefore the earnings from such business should not be taxed to pay for a protection that is not enjoyed. That is all there is to the story. There is no fear of a disruption of the association. The roads will undoubt edly come to an amicable understand ing on the subject."

SOUTHERN PACIFIC AND PACIFIC MAIL. The Chicago Herald says that Presi dent Huntington in New York and Vice-President Stubbs in San Francisco, have been pouring the woes of the Southern Pacific into reportorial ears during the last week. The substance of their re-marks is that the Southern Pacific will reduce rates in some cases 50 per cent., in spite of any action of the Transcontinental Association. In the same breath they declare there is no danger of the association either going to pieces or annulling the Pacific Mail Steamship subsidy. It is about as each for the subsidy. It is about as easy for the scientist to reconcile the thorough admixture of oil and water as for the rail-road man to reconcile these statements of Messrs. Huntington and Stubbs. The association agreement distinctly says that individual action cannot be taker in reducing rates. The Southern Pa-cific alone favors the contem-plated reduction in rates. All other transcontinental lines which have expressed any opinion are decidedly opexpressed any opinion are decidedly opposed to the reduction. If the Scathern Pacific reduces rates in the face of this opposition, that act in itself destroys all vitality in the association. On the other hand, the Southern Pacific seems to be the only line which favors the Pacific Mail subsidy. All the others apparently will refuse to pay their present percentage and several have declared they would not pay another cent after the New York meeting. The life of the association depends on this subsidy and it will inevitably collapse if the subsidy is discontinued. These are the exact facts as gathered from official sources and no amount of task can change them. Three of the transcontinental lines will go to New York to attend the meeting on next Wednesday with the expectation and wish that it shall be the last meeting of the association. If it is not, they declare that the Southern Pacific must assume the burden of the Pacific Mail subsidy and agree in no case to take individual action in rate reductions.

SCRAP HEAP. A New York Central special train last Saturday ran the eighty-one miles between Rochester and Syracuse in seventy-two minutes.

A Phillips excursion over the Rock Island route left Los Angeles yesterday. It numbered twenty-three passengers. Southern Pacific train No. 20, due at 10 o'clock last night from the East, was reported eight hours late. The cause was said to have been east of El Paso.

H. R. Duffin, ticket broker, who re-turned from San Francisco yesterday, says that eastbound passenger rates are more demoralized in that city than in Los Angeles.

The Southern Pacific has resolved to make a decided cut in freight rates between Galveston, Tex., and New Orleans. In some cases the cut will amount to 40 per cent. The new schedule becomes effective August 22. Other lines will undoubtedly be forced to meet the cut.

It is strange how some people will misconstrne what they read. Several persons yesterday really believed that the passenger rate to Chicago had been cut to $5, although the published accounts plainly stated that the cut was a reduction of $5 from the regular rate, which remained at $65 and $45 for first and second-class, respectively.

The Santa Fé general passenger department has adopted a novel scheme to advertise its principal seaside resorts. An unique proclamation has been issued declaring Sunday, September 11, as "Salt Water Day," when Neptune will welcome and entertain all visitors to his domain. Some especially attractive features will be prepared for this occa-sion, which is to be a sort of salt water carnival time.

There was talk in Chicago the other day of laying the whole passenger ticket rate war before United States District Attorney Milchrist with a view to securing indictments against the passenger agents for selling cut tickets a scale of the securing the securing control of the securing the passenger agents of sering out cleaves to scalpers. It is claimed that proof is ample to show that scalpers are securing tickets to Western points at much less than the published tariff rates. This, it is claimed, is a plain discrimination against the public and in violation of the provisions of the Intervition of t tion of the provisions of the Interstate commerce law.
